New Zealand Post Primary Teachers' Association Te Wehengarua

The professional association and union of New Zealand secondary teachers.

PPTA Te Wehengarua, where teachers stand together

The Post Primary Teachers' Association Te Wehengarua is the professional body and union representing secondary teachers.

We work together to support teachers and advance public education in New Zealand.

Supporting teachers

PPTA Te Wehengarua provides advice, guidance and advocacy about members' conditions of employment.

Members enjoy the following benefits:

- Collective agreements that guarantee your pay and conditions
- Professional and legal advice, employment relations education and dispute resolution
- Professional networks where you can take part in decision-making and influence the debate on crucial education issues
- Health, banking and insurance discounts.

How PPTA works

PPTA Te Wehengarua is the voice of secondary teachers, with over 20,000 members.

Each secondary, area school and technology centre has its own branch in one of 24 regions. Regions are represented on a national executive and at annual conference.

PPTA Te Wehengarua's executive and its Māori partner, Te Huarahi Māori Motuhake, are elected bodies that work for members nationally.

There are also networks for women, Pasifika teachers, new teachers, principals, senior leaders, LGBTIQ+ teachers and other groups.

Our annual conference is the forum where members debate and construct major policies.

How to join

Join online at ppta.org.nz or get a membership form from your branch chair or local field office.
